

The Alabama Taxpayers' Newsletter TM

Published periodically by JEFF PATTERSON LLC — All rights reserved Issue 3-2017

The law firm of JEFF PATTERSON LLC was founded to represent taxpayers. Its clients include in-state and out-of-state business entities — both large and small — and individuals. Because JEFF PATTERSON LLC highly values confidentiality, the firm does not disclose the identity of its clients. Prior to founding the firm, Jeff Patterson practiced law inside the Alabama Department of Revenue for more than 13 years.

The firm represents clients before state and local tax agencies in Alabama, and before the IRS, and has represented clients before tax agencies in other states and before the United States Supreme Court. The following is a partial list of the firm's areas of representation:

- sales and use taxes
- income tax
- business privilege tax
- trust fund recovery penalty
- local taxes
- federal income/excise taxes
- tax incentives
- regulatory matters
- audits (incl. third party)
- tax litigation
- property tax
- tax-exempt recognition
- collection matters
- unclaimed property.

INFORMATION CONCERNING THE ALABAMA TAXPAYERS' NEWSLETTER

For several years, it has been my pleasure to present to you news that affects Alabama taxpayers. Recently, though, Governor Kay Ivey appointed me to serve as the Chief Judge of the Alabama Tax Tribunal, effective May 1, 2017. And it will be my privilege to do so. Of course, I will not practice law while on the Tribunal, so this newsletter will not be published during that time. Thank you for reading and for your comments. Best wishes. ■
