

The Alabama Society of CPAs, through our Affinity Program with Plain-English Accounting, is offering you the opportunity to earn 2-hours of accounting and auditing CPE credits at your desktop on Tuesday, May 18, 2010 [1:00 – 3:00 Central Time]. The 2010 second quarter webcast will be presented by Tom Ratcliffe and will include coverage of the following topics:

- Implementing SAS Nos. 118 + 119 + 120: Supplementary Information
- Implementing ASU 2010-09: Amended Guidance Related to Subsequent Events
- Compilations and Reviews of Personal Financial Statements: Some Considerations
- OCBOA Financial Statements: FASB ASC 740 Disclosures
- Statements of Cash Flows: Some Continuing Presentation Issues
- Your Questions and My Responses to Your Questions

NOTE: As always, if any new developments take place prior to the webcast, we will include coverage of those developments as well as the above-noted topics.

Learning Objectives: After participating in the program, participants should be able to apply the provisions in some recently-finalized and currently-applicable technical literature, and appropriately-address, and properly-apply accounting and attest technical literature to certain specific reporting issues. In particular, after completing this program, you will be able to recognize and appropriately-implement technical literature related to the above-noted topics.

Delivery Method: Group – Internet based Program Level: Update
Prerequisites: Experience in accounting & auditing
Preparation: No advance preparation is required

Cost: ASCPA members can participate in this program for only $50 per participant [you will be invoiced after the webcast]. To earn 2 NASBA-certified CPE credits, each participant must be registered for the program and each participant must complete all of the “polling questions” during the program.

In an effort to control your costs associated with participating in the quarterly webcast programs, the second quarter program, like the first quarter program, will be an audio-only program.
