2018 PRIMARY ELECTION REPORT

• • • R U N O F F S • • •

JULY 9, 2018

Primary elections for all statewide constitutional offices, 11 of 19 state appellate court seats and all contested legislative seats were held on June 5. The runoffs for those primary races will be held on July 17.

Turnout is always an issue for a runoff, but with the Republican nominations for Attorney General and Lieutenant Governor still undetermined, voters have little reason to be indifferent. Additionally, there will be a Republican runoff in the race for Alabama's 2nd Congressional District, where Congressman Martha Roby (R—AL) faces her predecessor, former Congressman Bobby Bright, whom Roby ousted in 2010. Bright has changed parties and launched a campaign premised on his support for President Trump, aimed at emphasizing Roby's lack thereof. However, President Trump has endorsed Roby and been critical of Bright, which has curbed his campaign's momentum.

The report compiled below provides a summary of each runoff race.

STATEWIDE ELECTIONS

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Republican TWINKLE CAVANAUGH will square off against Rep. WILL AINSWORTH for the Republican nomination. The winner will face Democrat WILL BOYD, who was unopposed in the primary, in November.

ATTORNEY GENERAL

Former Alabama Attorney General TROY KING and current Alabama Attorney General STEVE MARSHALL are in the Republican primary runoff. Not surprisingly, the four-man primary in this race was extraordinarily close. Relatively speaking, votes were evenly distributed with each candidate receiving between 20-28 percent of the vote.

STATE COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE AND INDUSTRIES

State Senator GERALD DIAL and RICK PATE will face off in a runoff for the Republican nomination to this office.

ALABAMA SUPREME COURT

PLACE 1 — Newly-appointed Associate Justice BRAD MENDHEIM, a former Houston County Circuit Judge, faces Mobile Circuit Court Judge SARAH STEWART in the Republican runoff. Mendheim led the three-person field in June with just over 40% of the vote. Mendheim has received the endorsements of most business-backed associations and groups, while Stewart is the beneficiary of the plaintiff bar's support. The BCA endorsed both candidates.

COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS

PLACE 1 — Alabama Tax Court Judge CHRISTY EDWARDS led this three-man primary with just over 40% of the vote and faces Baldwin County District Judge MICHELLE THOMASON in the runoff. Edwards' primary results were strong statewide. Thomason won Baldwin County, where a state senate runoff will also take place next week. No doubt, Thomason is concentrating her efforts on yielding strong support in Baldwin and Mobile counties.

2018 LEGISLATIVE RACES

STATE SENATE

There are five (5) primary runoffs for Alabama Senate seats. Two of those races include challenged incumbents (Sen. Larry Stutts and Sen. David Burkette), while the remaining three are open seats.

The chart following the summaries has been updated to indicate whether the primary election resulted in a presumptive winner for a seat (bold) or a primary runoff (gray highlight). If a seat will be resolved in the General Election, the candidates' names are red, blue or green depending on their respective party.

SENATE DISTRICT 7 (MADISON)— A Democratic primary runoff is going to be held between Democrats Deidra Willis and Deborah Barros. The winner will face Republican Sam Givhan in November.

SENATE DISTRICT 6 (COLBERT, FRANKLIN, LAUDERDALE, LAWRENCE, MARION)—Incumbent Republican Sen. Larry Stutts (R—Tuscumbia) will be in a runoff against Steve Lolley. The Republican nominee will face Democrat Rep. Johnny Mack Morrow (D—Red Bay) in November.

SENATE DISTRICT 13 (CHAMBERS, CHEROKEE, CLAY, CLEBURNE, LEE, RANDOLPH)—In the primary race to replace Sen. Gerald Dial (R—Lineville), Republicans Randy Price and Mike Sparks advance to the runoff. Price led with 47% of the vote.

SENATE DISTRICT 26 (MONTGOMERY)—Rep. John Knight (D—Montgomery) finished second to newly-elected incumbent Sen. David Burkette (D—Montgomery) in the Democratic primary. Burkette received 47% of the vote. The race is scheduled for a runoff between the two, the winner of which will face Republican D.J. Johnson in November. Note that although Burkette is an incumbent, he was elected in a special election that was resolved after the close of the 2018 Regular Legislative Session, so he has not yet served in the legislature.

SENATE DISTRICT 32 (BALDWIN)—Baldwin County Commissioner Chris Elliott and dentist David Northcutt will face off in a Republican primary runoff. In November, the winner of that runoff will go against Democrat Jason Fisher, who did not have primary opposition.
